

I protest Sinclair
Broadcasting using
free, public airways
as a platform to
air its own
political views.
Deeming the anti-Kerry film as
"newsworthy" makes sense only in the context of balanced
coverage---required
of all
broadcasters--and is not something that Sinclair plans to
do. This is what we get for allowing corporations to
control the media:
they think they're
above the law.

Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license
renewal process
needs to involve
more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
